Dear Ms. Edwards:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), request (GSA number 2015-000092) dated, October 27 2014, in which you requested,

"1. How many GSA employees have submitted a request for reasonable accommodation since January 1, 2010? Provide categories of accommodations requested; 2. Based on the answer to question #1, how many requests for reasonable accommodation were denied, and what was the basis of denial. How many GSA employees who were denied a request for reasonable accommodation filed a grievance with the Union or with the GSA EEO; and 3. Based on the answer to question #1, how many requests for reasonable accommodation were approved, and what was the basis for the approval."

GSA's response to this request includes the annual reports on file as of January 2011 to September 2014. In response to the first part of question number 2, there were no grievances filed with the Union. However, according to the Office of Civil Rights (OCR), from January 1, 2010, to December 18, 2014, there were 57 total complaints where denial of Reasonable Accommodation was referenced in their allegations (23 Informal, 31 Formal, 3 Mixed).

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact Anne Weigle at 253-931-7233 or anne.weigle@gsa.gov.

Sincerely,

Travis Lewis
